Charter Hearing Scheduled

Postcards reminding leaders of Torrance community groups of a special review of the City Charter have been mailed from city hall, it was reported today.

The review is scheduled at 7 p.m. Thursday, April 27, in the city council chambers.

The hearing, to be conducted by a special committee of the Torrance City Council, is to identify the need for and scope of a detailed review of the city charter.

J. A. Beasley, Ken Miller, and Ross A. Sciarrotta Sr. are members of the special committee.

More than 135 invitations to participate in the hearing have been mailed to community organizations, including service clubs, homeowners' groups, PTA units, and church organizations.

Seats, Tires Taken From Auto Dealer

Theft of tires and bucket seats valued at $1,800 was reported to Torrance police Monday by officials of Ted Green Chevrolet.

Police said bucket seats worth $1,200 were taken from three new cars stored at 3201 W. Lomita Blvd. Twelve tires, worth some $600, were taken off three cars on a lot at 20725 Hawthorne Blvd.

Police said the thefts occurred Saturday or Sunday evening.

Savings Firms Approve Merger

The merger of Atlas Federal Savings and Loan Association of Pasadena and Glendale Federal Savings has been announced by officials of the two firms.

The Atlas office will become the Pasadena branch of Glendale Federal. Robert A. Gurlay, executive vice president and manager of Atlas Federal, will continue to head operations of the Pasadena office.

South Side

Two, four, six, eight—who do we appreciate? One of the answers is the girls who lead the cheers and entertain with dance routines and flag twirling feats.

To use their voices to unite all Spartan voices in a deafening roar against all foes next year the South student body chose cheerleaders Gail Harney, Ginny O'Brien, Elena Sainz, and Kathy Mahonen.

Halftime is an interruption even boy spectators will enjoy when new song queens Malory Heavysege, Marlene Sailorf, Penny Anson, and Janet Surber and "old-timers" Debbie Celio, Sue Scholle, Kathy Ellis and Ginger Saunders entertain at games next year.

SOUTH WILL become a triple-threat tomorrow in sports. The varsity baseball team will play Mira Costa on South's field at 3 p.m. On Costa's courts, South's tennis team will meet their opponents.

The third threat comes from the "weaker sex" as the best of the Girl's Athletic Association seeks victory over the Rolling Hills team on South's baseball field at 3:30 p.m.

"A Patch of Blue," the moving story of a Negro man and a blind girl, will be presented in the original film version by the service organization Athena Friday, April 21. Starring Sidney Pointier and Elizabeth Hartman, the film will be shown at 6:30 and 9:30 p.m. at South. The admission price for all is 50 cents.

A newspaperboy learns to keep good records

Young man taking a business course!

During the school day this boy takes courses in English, arithmetic, the social sciences. And he does well at them. On his newspaper route, he takes another course—a business course, in which he applies in a practical way the things he learns in the classroom—he also learns something more.

He learns the basics of business, which will stand him in good stead throughout his life. As a newspaperboy, he operates his own retail business, with the counsel of our circulation people who make a career of working with boys. He buys his newspapers from us, and he sells them to you. In managing his business, he delivers, collects, keeps records, learns to deal with people. Little wonder so many business leaders of today will tell you the most valuable experience they had as a boy was managing a newspaper route. It's one good way a boy can round out his education.
